

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Sorry I have been off line for a while. This old Reb tripped over his own feet and fell and broke my arm, again... which so happens to be the hand I write with. Boy, "oh" boy, did that smart! It took a minute,, but this old Reb got back up. I thought about it later. It was good I didn't land on my other side... and have my pistol go off and shoot me in the arse!

But there will never be anything more painful than to lose my country to a bunch of scoundrels. Everyone has always known that Joe Bite-me would never finish out his full term. It's been set up since the beginning. They just needed the proper house to do it. Opportunity is slam their door down. Time to install Kamala "the Camel" Harris in the White House and drag us into a war. "A?"

I wonder how much of those secret documents are in the hands of little Hunter? And remember, these maniacal monsters have been doing business with the Chinese to the tune of millions. Not to mention all of his unqualified minions that have been privy to our deepest secrets. You know... launching codes, secret projects, covert operations, names, places, dates... Basically, the key to the enigma machine, which helped us kick Nazi butts and win the War of the Atlantic. This, the most egregious treason since the onset of our republic.

Now McCarthy has taken power in the House and claims he is going to get to the bottom of this. "Yea!" I'll bet! It may come to nothing but business as usual, and no one going to jail but their minions. McCarthy is a Californian and is influenced by it's politics. This old Reb remains dubious!

Time for this old Reb to ride!

"Captain, there are three cowboys outside... say they are here to pick up the horse."

"This is Jay Dodd, Glen Hardy and Pat Ross! We've got your horse in the barn. That's quite an animal!"

"The boss bought him for his daughter; he is the fastest horse in the county. Those thieves took him from our barn!"

"Well, Glen, those boys won't be stealing horses anymore."

"How's that?"

"Let's say that they are all bald headed, thanks to an Osage by the name of Free Horse."

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Ruski's are threatening nukes if Deutschland (Germany) sells Leopard 2 Tanks to the Ukraine. These are surplus tanks that Germany has used since 1979. You can see the new German Panther KF51 tank online. What monsters! The Ruski's are afraid of them, as well they should be!

P.S.P.S. Covid. Will it ever leave us alone? Not if the medical industry has anything to say about it. If you are diagnosed with Covid and go into the hospital, you are put on a very rigid protocol. There is a high mortality rate and your family is kept in the dark.

The "Cares" act provides bonus money to hospitals. They get money for a diagnosis of Covid. Hospitals get a payment for offering free Covid testing at the emergency room. Bonus payment for a diagnosis of Covid. They get another bonus payment if you are admitted to the hospital with Covid. Another bonus payment if the patient is put on Remdesivir. Wait! Another bonus payment if you're put on a mechanical ventilator. And another 20% bonus if your death certificate has Covid-19 listed as the cause of death, even if you didn't actually die of Covid.

Estimates are that hospitals are getting about $100,000 per patient. That's not all. There's bonus payments to coroners.

Hospitals are being paid to kill you. There is no other explanation for what is being done. It's murder on a mass scale for profit.
