

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

OH, MY GOD!

New York adds a new section to their state constitution to enable those who wish to abort their baby, even up to the last minute—when that child is a fully developed baby! They have given themselves the right to murder that child, even though it is a living human, instead of offering that baby up for adoption.

“Baby Killers!”

These same people used to scream that same thing at our troops returning from the Nam. Now they are what they accused others of being. Gee, I wonder what’s for dinner at Cuomo’s house tonight? Maybe “infant du jour” - “A?” Or “fetus al la cart?” Oh, I know, “caviar d’human.” Nancy’s favorite!

And with the aid of Chuck-off Schumeroid... to those who can’t afford to feed themselves... soilent green! “Ah, tasty!”

“A?” So, if you plan to visit New York, leave your children behind or the Morlocks might get them. Adds new meaning to “baby back ribs.”

Talk about the new “child’s meme” happy meals New York style. Only Godless people do such evil. They are the real lost! Each and every baby born free in America is a precious gem, each more valuable than all the riches of our planet. So, those who are responsible for this magnificent sin I say, “se curse se vous” - that’s French, it means “a curse on you!”

These poor women that will do it don’t even have to have a qualified person to make sure of tiny things like bleeding to death! Anyone with a cheap Chinese made knife is now qualified!! How many women will die horribly? Welcome to the new holocaust... and it starts in New York!!!

Time for this old Reb to ride.

“Captain! Captain! Can you hear me? It’s Little Bob, captain!”

“Oh, hey, Bob.” the captain replies weakly, “There was a couple of Kiowa that stopped by. One looked familiar... I see you brought an angel with you. Beautiful.”

“I think he’s really quite delirious.” said Little Bob.

“I don’t know, Bob, I think he is quite a looker myself,” the ‘angel’ said.

“Those Kiowa must have pulled him out from under the horse and covered him with this elk skin... then put something in the wounds. Let’s get him in the wagon! And back to the ranch house! Then we’ll send for the doc.”

“Ah, an angel... am I dead?”

“No, captain, this is Rhea.”

“So beautiful! Black hair and ice blue eyes! They’re sounding recall! Must reform the line! Must reform the line!! Reform the line!!!!”

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Nancy P.P..... etc., etc., etc.! She likes the donuts made with real fetal fluid flour!! By the way, Nancy has a wall around her house! Please feel free to chastise any New York ghoul you want. Key their cars, spit in their eyes.

P.S.P.S. I’m going to send Trump $20 towards building that wall. I challenge if and every one of you out there to do the same.
