

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Absolute power corrupts absolutely. And that is where we are now with Obama and awaiting word of the most power crazed woman in this hemisphere to announce running for the Socialist Presidential candidate. Even the gigolo Kerry is considering a run at it himself. I heard he couldn't get Peter, Paul and Mary, so he's considering Wayne Newton, singing "Danka Shane" with "Hillary Dillary dock" standing off stage, mumbling, "What does it matter," and Obama crying his eyes out, saying that's the most beautiful song he's ever heard... and, by the way, you're welcome! Launch another drone will you?

Isn't it funny D.H.S. is running out of money and Der Fuhrer wants six trillion dollars to wage war with? I'm not sure, but I don't think the entire invasion of Normandy cost that much, "A," or even the reconstruction of Japan after "Fat Man" and "Little Boy!"

I'm kind of curious, since this man has no idea of how to fight a war and has no intention of winning anything—what do you suppose he'll spend it on? How about himself! Just think about the vacations he could take then! Oh, and just think, the other day they said Air Force One was getting old, so he is getting a new one on us! I'd bet Hillary would sell it to some back shooting sheik for the $50 million she seems to be short of, to be happily rich and not poor at fifty million. I only wish I were so poor!

These people are the most corrupt I have ever seen. They are totally disconnected from us and they are wanting to get more of our boys and girls in the military killed. Another quagmire without end. So we can hear some nasty little urnalist call our children murderers and baby killers. Then our so-called leaders saying, "What does it matter, they're not our children. Our children are off on safe seven million dollar birthdays far away from war."

Well, time for this Reb to ride. We had visitors last night. Ragged ex-soldiers. I could see remnants of both armies. We think they are raiders gone bad, checking us out, part of a larger group. So, we've all loaded for bear and every eye wide open. They might hit us and try to take our horses and supplies.

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Spring is almost upon us. Remember what I said a year ago? "Armies move in the spring." Putin isn't done yet... say goodbye to the rest of the Ukraine. I could be wrong and hopefully will be proved wrong on this one. Putin is pointing modern nukes at us! Anybody remember your drills from school? Face down on your knees, under your desk, hands on the back of your head and kiss sweet family goodbye. Always good to have a back up plan!

P.S.P.S. Look around you. what's precious to you? We have no effective leadership, which puts us in extreme peril each and every day. Some of us lived through the missile crisis in Cuba. I clearly remember Khrushchev and what it felt like to think, "This is it."

For all you youngsters out there, I doubt if most of you can even fathom what it's like to fear frying in a nuclear fire. Well, get used to it, welcome to cold war climate change!!! Hannibal is at the gate!@ And he wants to huff and puff and blow us all to hell!!!

On Being Prepared:

"If you know the enemy and know yourself, you need not fear the result of a hundred battles. If you know yourself but not the enemy, for every victory gained you will also suffer a defeat. If you know neither the enemy nor yourself, you will succumb in every battle."

— Sun Tzu, The Art of War

On Having The Right Attitude:

"We shall defend our island, whatever the cost may be, we shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills; we shall never surrender."

— Winston Churchill

On Defending our Nation:

"The liberties of our country, the freedom of our civil constitution, are worth defending against all hazards: And it is our duty to defend them against all attacks."

— Samuel Adams
