

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Well, let's see... the Italians are mobilizing troops to patrol the cities and countryside, while the French are doing the same and now the Danes (which all the other Nordic countries will follow). Spring is almost here and the armies are warming up their equipment, dusting off their bullets and getting ready for war on a massive scale. If you haven't been paying attention, this is not a drill. Even Israel is calling all their children home. That has got to be not good!

I noticed Neal Boortz and even Rush have begun talking about the crusades. I've been doing that almost since I began writing this page. I believe I said we are now embarking on the 17th crusade, for the same exact reasons we did it sixteen times before. Isn't that something? The only things that have changed are the gadgets we play with. The mentalities are still the same. And now we are back to kill or be killed! Obama and his entourage have absolutely no strategy and haven't the slightest idea how to fight a real war, not to mention his continued support of such groups as the Muslim Brotherhood behind our backs... with continued insults to our allies.

I know! Let's offer ISIS free Wi-Fi for a month and more M&M's. That should make 'em think! "A?" Maybe they will go away! Like the liberals want when the wish upon a star. Every day our leaders grow weaker and more indecisive, which just gives fuel to our enemies and heightens their moral!

You know why the Reb writes in such a way. It's because no one else is. Our politicians sure as hell won't and they, above all, should be screaming at the top of their lungs, "Betrayal, sabotage, treason," at everything the usurper does.

Now I hear Herman Cain say, "if we can just hold out just twenty two more months, then we'll have new leadership." Yea, right! What if the murderess Hillary accidentally stumbles into the President's seat? Then what will it matter? Time to ride. The scavengers came back. We killed three, had two of our own wounded before they scattered. Ours stood

"... God forbid we should ever be twenty years without such a rebellion. The people cannot be all, and always, well informed. The part which is wrong will be discontented, in proportion to the importance of the facts they misconceive. If they remain quiet under such misconceptions, it is lethargy, the forerunner of death to the public liberty.... And what country can preserve its liberties, if its rulers are not warned from time to time, that this people preserve the spirit of resistance? Let them take arms. The remedy is to set them right as to the facts, pardon and pacify them. What signify a few lives lost in a century or two? The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time, with the blood of patriots and tyrants. It is its natural manure."

--Thomas Jefferson

The Constitution is not an instrument for the government to restrain the people, it is an instrument for the people to restrain the government." --Patrick Henry their ground as they had done many times before! One that died served in my brigade! Wars sometimes never end for some! When one is over a new one begins!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Why our Christian so-called preachers are not pitching hissy fits over the slaughter of our own, I don't know. When I see people like Deron Spoo, I feel like I look into the eyes of a deer in the head lights and then I know why. I see something more like, "convert and repent later," in his eyes. There is no fight our enemies or we will all be killed or enslaved.

P.S.P.S. Hillary-Dillary-Dock is back. It looks as if she has had the face lift and is back to spout her crap again. Do you really want this seventy year old murderess to be President? To you ladies out there: do you really want her to be in charge? Commanding your sons and daughters to go into combat, while she amasses more wealth at the cost of your children's lives? I mean, as long as she gets her other fifty million, what does it matter? What does it matter how many of our children must die for her. It's not about us; it's about her!
