

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

You know it's interesting Hillary and Obama started all this Democrap about the Russians to cover up their criminal activities. I would like to know why Comey is still out of jail and why Hillary, too, is not being held in a cell next to Noriega. Remember him and Panama?

By the way, I've heard that all these drive by shootings and robberies, home invasions and in your face shootings at police have only just gotten started... after Trump took office. Like I said before, I have some gator infested swamp land for sale!

What it all boils down to is the Democraps drove our country into a ditch then bailed while the woosie Republicans ignored it and plugged their ears. I think that when Trump was elected the American people were sending a clear message to the R.N.C. Get off your arses and do what WE the people told you to.

Jail the criminals, build the wall and shove Obamacare back up Obama's... well, you got the picture.

Time to ride. Well, remember we saw what looked like a large number of Kiowas, Mr. Harris?

"Aye, captain." Well, there's about twenty of them staring at us right now!

"Just as few contemporary observers had expected the Greek republics to defeat the Persian empire which had never been defeated, few observers of the founders' day expected the weak and undisciplined collection of American republics to defeat Great Britain, which was the greatest power on earth in the 18th century. But the founders accepted without reservation Herodotus's conclusion as to the source of the Greek victory over the Persians: 'Free men fight better than slaves.'"

They're bloody well shooting at us! The ranch house is about a mile and a half. "Shall we run for it, Mr. Harris?" They're coming hard and fast. I can see the corporal on the porch. We'll jump and head inside the house. Maybe we can hold them off there.

"I see you brought visitors, captian!" well... "they may stay for dinner, corporal!" Right now they will just have to eat lead! Close the windows and bar the door!! It's going to be rough boys!!!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Sold my Ruger Mark II the other day and bought one of the new Ruger Mark IV. I really liked my Mark II target but with the new improvements the Mark IV has it beat hands down. Had a Mark III but didn't really like it that much.

Even thought I'm still convinced, after years in the gun business and having sold or traded almost every handgun on the market today, that the Ruger .22 pistols are, bar none, the best woods .22 money can buy. Try a Mark IV you will, I think, be impressed!!

P.S.P.S. Next Trump rally you go to... go armed. The Democrap dweebs have been showing up armed with ball bats. Might as well up the ante, "A?"
