

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

I feel like I'm reliving the cold war all over again. The Missiles of October! I hope you remember your school drills! You know? If you see a flash, get under your desk and cover the back of your head with your hands!

Then, kiss your butt good bye. I can still remember watching the soviet troops parading through Red Square, showing off their "nukes," goose stepping all the way. Just what we need in this world is another Lunatic.

One lunatic drops dead in Venezuela, just to be replaced by a new sheriff in town—only this one is an oriental despot who thinks he is immortal. I got to thinking the other day that this little despot and his daddy and grand-pa have been starving their slave people and spending almost their entire G.D.N.P. on the military to the point that, maybe, this moron has decided to try and break out in an attempt to do or die.

Why not? Hitler did it, but failed. They called it The Bulge. Thousands died. Whatever Mr. Kim Ill Puke does, you can be sure our children overseas will be at risk.

Personally speaking, I'm tired of little dick-tators threatening me over the last sixty some-odd years. Let's go ahead and pull the trigger first and fry that little, obnoxious wart! Then, do it to the Arabs and settle all accounts in one hour or less. Then, we can get to picking up the pieces and start all over with a clean slate and large, new sources of glass.

I wouldn't be surprised if the Chinese didn't have a hand in what's going on. After all, it is in their best interests to see us in as much chaos as is possible! I heard it said that it's easier to search the dead and rob them than to try and rob the living. Very simple technique—the wolves usually come from all directions. A couple keep you busy while the others attack the flanks and the rear. They have Obama running in all directions without focus on any of our enemies. He thinks the people are his enemies. Why else would he have Janet Napolitano stock pile ammunition, weapons and armored vehicles, if he doesn't consider us a force to be put down while he becomes the newest of Communist regime leaders under the watchful eye of the Chinese themselves! So here we are, a lunatic shaking his little "nuke" at us. Our own government poised to war on it's own people. Gee! Does anyone but the Reb see it coming, too?

Time to ride. This old Reb has a little stock piling to do himself!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Among other things, the Treasury Department—that's the B.A.T.F.—has given itself the power to read your private emails without a warrant of any kind. "Seig Heil! Seig Heil!"

I find it hard now to get my leg kicked as high as a dog can, so I guess I'll just walk normal and keep my feet on the path of Freedom, if you don't mind! Goose stepping is not my forté.

P.S.P.S. Most of the buildings built in the 60's have Fallout Shelters in them. I suggest you find out where they are, just in case! Better safe than sorry! If you're in Boston, well, looks like your local Bill Ayers type is hard at work. Probably one of his disciples! "A!"

"I'm the only major candidate who opposed this war from the beginning; and as president, I will end it. Second, I will cut tens of billions of dollars in wasteful spending. I will cut investments in unproven missile defense systems. I will not weaponize space. I will slow our development of future combat systems. I will institute an independent defense priorities board to ensure that the Quadrennial Review is not used to justify unnecessary defense spending. "

Barak Obama

"We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America".
