

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

There was a time, not too recent, that when a man or woman said "I did it; I'm the one; I'm guilty and can prove it," (which is just what happened in the case of Mr. England and Mr. Watts in Tulsa) people would usually be agreeable and take them outside and deal out the appropriate mode of justice. This, thereby saved the whole town and all of it's constituents buckets of money with incarcerations and lengthy trials that only benefit the "liar's," I mean lawyer's pockets and rob us blind! But low and behold we forgot Mr. Tim Harris wants to be state attorney general some day, maybe even U.S. Attorney General, another but white version of Eric Holder. How much do you think this monkey trial is going to cost the tax payers of Tulsa county? Well, I can give you a rough estimate. Say goodbye to road repairs in the city next winter. The money to pay all his entourage and the judge, to compensate the jurors, to keep these scum balls in food and lodging for God only knows how long... then, all the money to pay attorneys and judges in appeal after appeal until the money dries up for the legal con-men and finally, "Bye-bye, suckers! Next!"

What do you think fourteen years (or, like in one case coming up this week, thirty seven years) before justice is served? This is going to cost millions of taxpayer dollars to prove beyond a reasonable doubt, when they have confessed openly, on camera and signed a written statement confirming that to be fact! How about... load these two guys in a vehicle and take them straight to McAlester, give them their last meal, last rites—if they so desire—and get it over with!! Now, what's wrong with that? Mr. Harris would say it's to ensure they get their day in court. What he really means is... he won't be able to spend your money as if he were Michelle-my-belle herself! What do you expect? After all, we are the country of the lawyer, for the lawyer, by the politician!

Isn't that who our legislators, by a majority, have become? All of these people on the left that are doing all this disruption to our constitution are, in fact, lawyers. Obama, Nancy P. and over 70% of our representatives and senators! How about the Kennedys? The Clintons? All the scandal they bring: we need to stand up together and tell these people, "No," and "No," again! Spend your own money, damn it!

Haven't you heard, Tim? We are going broke at a rate of fourteen trillion dollars, soon to be sixteen. I mean, where the hell do they get off, any way? Like I've said before: control the con-men and solve a big part of our problem. Tulsan's, ask yourselves, "Is trying these two just for the show, starring Mr. Tim Harris and a cost of hundreds worth ten, twenty million?"

I'm not a vigilante. I'm just trying to do what's right and that is to save us from frivolous political spending... and this is it, at it's best. Let's send a message to others like England and Watts. "We, the citizens of this country, are weary of their crap. Send these boys south and just do it! And, when we catch the rest of their murderous kind, just do it!

Once again, the Reb is on the move, my sabre sharp and my pistols greased. The Hornet's Nest is ready for me!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Just think of all the black votes you would achieve, Tim! Burn these boys! Burn 'em good! Burn-'em-now!

Letters to The Rebel can be submitted on our website.

"The judiciary of the United States is the subtle corps of sappers and miners constantly working under ground to undermine the foundations of our confederated fabric. They are construing our constitution from a coordination of a general and special government to a general and supreme one alone. This will lay all things at their feet... We shall see if they are bold enough to take the daring stride their five lawyers have lately taken. If they do, then... I will say, that 'against this every man should raise his voice,' and more, should uplift his arm."
