

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

The second American civil war is at hand. Recruiters are now required to ask all new military applicants a particular question. If answered, "No," that prospective recruit is turned away. That question being: If ordered to do so, would you turn your weapon on American citizens?

Now, why in the hell would they ask such a question if they did not intend a coup on the government and people of this nation? It may be time to begin forming our own army, before it's too late... if it isn't already.

Just remember, if you are not prepared, then you will be one of the new subjects to be ruled by George Soros and Barack Hussein Obama. Just think, you were privy to a preview in Boston. By enforcing Shelter In Place and locking down a million people, they test ran their experiment to see if they could get away with martial law. It worked. No one in Boston, except the so-called law enforcement community, new what was going on.

When, in recent memory, has this happened in your life time? Never! I'm trying to understand why anyone would put up with this. If some cop were to tell me to stay in my house until they said to come out, I'd say, "F you. I am a free man and an American citizen under the Constitution," and promptly do as I please... as a free man! If arrest attempt is made on my person, I will defend myself from unjust persecution with whatever means the situation calls for. And, if deadly force is threatened by any who would deny me my American rights, I will also threaten to defend in the same manner.

So, to all of you in law enforcement, you best choose sides now. Decide... are you for your flag and Constitution, or are you a traitor and willing accomplice to the illegal government that will try to rule? Make up your minds, because I'm not alone when I say, "time to ante up." Who's side are you on? That of the usurper and George Soros? Or the people who have entrusted you with the job you are paid to do—to SERVE and PROTECT.

I know some of you guys out there with badges and I have nothing but respect for you and consider you friends. I also know a few I wouldn't trust to feed my cat. Tim Alban is one of those I'll always keep my eye on. He once said to the Reb that only military (the government) and police should have guns! I've told you about him in a past issue. He is a willing puppet of the regime and will turn on us like a wild animal if ordered to do so—with absolutely no remorse at all. To trust this man is the same as trusting the bank robber with the keys to the vault! He is a socialist and will do as he is told by Obama. I wonder, how many more Albans are there out there?

Sept. 15, 1863, Lincoln declares authorized martial law, suspending habeas corpus throughout the U.S. to "prisoners of war, spies, or aiders and abettors of the enemy," and other classes of people. The President's proclamation was challenged in ex parte Milligan (71 US 2 [1866]). The Supreme Court ruled that Lincoln's imposition of martial law (by way of suspension of habeas corpus) was unconstitutional.

You officers who know this Reb, I ask you, search your hearts and prepare yourselves: war is coming! Soon! I would not want to see my friend on the other side. For he will be the first I will drop, because then you will no longer be my friend; you will be a traitor to your Constitution and flag!

Time for this Reb to ride. Shot a Yankee off his horse today, just for his rifle. Seems he had one of those new Yankee repeating rifles. It's mine, now. He never felt a thing!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. I know many of you served our country with honor and great sacrifice. I also know you were never asked if you would shoot Americans to support that philosophy that most of you have fought against. So, I appeal to your patriotism. You fought and bled for it... are you willing to fight to keep it?

P.S.P.S. Doesn't it make you wonder why they don't do the same whenever a drive-by or gang-banger assault takes place? After all, aren't they the greatest proliferators of terrorism in our country? How about it D.H.S.? B.A.T.F.? D.E.A.? Obama? What about Martial Law to clean up gangs? Shelter In Place!!! Where are those nine thousand hungry-for-blood cops and agents with their weapons and tanks?
