GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

Thank you, Lord Creator and Mary Fallin! Open carry signed into law by the governor! What a revelation!! About time! About time to put responsible action back where it belongs, and that is in the hands of the citizens. We have long been assaulted by criminals who carry anyway and rob and kill indiscriminately... any place, any time, for who knows what reasons. The results are almost always in the favor of the criminal and the assailed are often left dead!! Finally, a chance to show we are not going to take it anymore! Robbers, gangsters, would-be murders beware! Forget the damn dog- beware of owner! We now have the tool we need to protect ourselves from Indian Territory Oklahoma lawlessness and horse thieves! I say, "Whoopee!!"

I'm going to strap on my constitutional weapon as soon as I can get the damn thing loaded!! You know, for the first time in a long time, I don't feel so vulnerable!! This is a victory for the citizens of not only the state of Oklahoma, but also the rest of the country. I have been to other states where open carry laws have existed for years. And, as far as I can remember, there was never any indication of any "OK Corral" or running gun fights through their streets. Why? Because responsible people are not often given to cold blooded murder and try to avoid confrontations, unless forced to act! There are cops out there who have never fired their own weapons, except on the range... because killing people just because you have the power is not the most tasty of needs for them. They would like to retire knowing they have never taken a human life during the duration of their careers. So, I'm not worried, but would-be bad guys should be: their day is at hand. Any crybabies out there? All I have to say to you is, "Why are you crying about it? Are you engaged in something that might put you in direct conflict with the muzzle of someone's legal carry weapon?"

I have been a hunter myself for most of my life and, and with the people I have hunted with, there has been no trail of bodies left in our wake. I believe this to the same about open carry. But, I do expect the local wanna-be terrorists to think

"Americans have the right and advantage of being armed - unlike the citizens of other countries whose governments are afraid to trust the people with arms." James Madison twice before grabbing somebodys purse again, because now the table will turn. This is what freedom is! I feel good! I feel safer! I feel as if the curse has been lifted and the great 'Eye of Mordor' can no longer cast its gaze upon free men. Now we can drive his evil army of gang-bangers, thieves and murders out! If you are ever put in such a position, by some dweeb, and you pull that trigger (and save the taxpayers another million in legal crap) then be a warrior a carve a notch in your grip... and sleep tight knowing it was his or her own fault! Now that scum is answering to his creator for all his indiscretions, which has been a long time coming! Most thieves and liars don't even think about their mortal souls until it's too late. Then they cry and beg, but, too late is too late! I had a cousin that was, at one time, assistant warden in a state prison. He said it's surprising, even these so-called big bad boys have to be carried kicking and crying to the death chamber... and then they experience the terror of their victims as they are mercilessly strapped into the chair by the state! Begging and pleading up to the last moment! No longer tough; no longer bad boy on the block; just a whimpering bowl of jelly on his way to Hell!

So, you see, when confronted with the chance of dying, most so-called bad boys and girls will run like rabbits. Just remember, don't shoot 'em in the back; just watch the cowards run! Only the just stand with courage at their moment of glory! Be not afraid!

Time for this gun-totin' Reb to ride! The enemy is on the run; time to up the pressure!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Praise be on high, and pass the ammunition! Had a feeling about Mary Fallin! Good Job! She is out in front of the column, flag in hand, "Rally Here! Rally here, Republicans! She's in the fight! Now, let's deal with immigration.
