GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Wake up friends! Go outside and get a breath of fresh air. Restrictions are relaxing and business is picking up. I have been hunkered down long enough that I'm starting to feel like a hermit. I feel like an outlaw with this bandana on my face. Unfortunately, there aren't any stage coaches anymore.

Don't know what the future is going to bring with this virus. I'll sure be glad when the scientists figure it out. This old Reb is sort of a party animal and I'm a little short of my party time!

Just remember, this virus is not done with us, so don't let your guard down. Be vigilant or the army of darkness will surely overtake us and spread havoc on our society. The old Reb is sorry that he took a little extended vacation... after all, as long as Joe Bite-me is still the Democrap's best choice and hasn't got a snowball's chance in Hades of beating Trump... does the word incompetent come to mind? Or the word baffled?

I'm worrying about other things. Right now I hate this mask. I can't breathe in this thing!

Time for This Reb to ride.

"Can't remember ever going on a morning ride with a bunch of Kiowa, Captain!"

"I can't either, Mr. Harris! I feel a little better that most of them left. Tall Elk says we are there, just over this small rise. My goodness, Mr. Harris! Do you see it?!"

"Aye, Captain! A strange sight to behold on the Texas plains! Bloody hell! How do you figure an elephant got here, Captain?"

"I can see now why Tall Elk was so spooked. The Kiowa won't go near it! Time to investigate, Mr. Harris.!"

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Nancy and Charlie are still up to their same old democrap! That should tell everyone just exactly how much they care about the rest of us! Which is nada!

Power is their only goal. Which is plain as the nose on your face. Just look at what is happening in the so-called blue states!

P.S.P.S. There is something wrong with everything that is going on. December/January—our economy is going gangbusters. Joblessness is at its lowest rate in decades. Black unemployment is at a new low—ever. New entrepreneurial efforts are breaking records.

By the way, the impeachment fiasco died on the vine in November/December.

Well, conveniently, China suddenly has a virus and won't tell anyone anywhere anything. So the world panics, shuts down the entire world economy, including the U.S. Jobless rates are now better than 20%.

And, conveniently, Minneapolis goes insane. In front of the entire country.

The 2016 election results were a surprise, to be sure. But especially for the left. They were within inches of complete power with a spineless Republican party throwing up worthless candidates like Romney. Republicrats stood by doing nothing. In fact, in the first (oh, so necessary, ahem) covid relief bill they passed, the Republicrats allowed millions and millions of dollars in pork to Democrap causes to be included. They didn't fight. They "held their noses" and voted yes.

We are not being represented, we are being ruled.

Doubt it? Take a look at the flagrant, unconstitutional control measures being taking in blue states. On top of that, the House of Representatives, run by Democrap, is allowing members to let someone else (even a staff member!) vote for them. In the entire history of this country, during the War of 1812, when the Whitehouse burned to the ground, the Civil War... at no time EVER has the House or Senate voted by proxy. It's unconstitutional. And the Republicrat's answer is... to sue for it. That's right. Going to go sue for throwing the Constitution out the window. That's their best fight. That's NO fight. Time to stand for freedom. - Mrs. Rebel
