

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Hope you had a great Memorial Day! Wasn't such a good weekend for Danica Patrick, though. If you watched the Indy 500, you know why. It would have been great to have seen her at least finish the last race of her career. What a race. I didn't previously watch the whole race for years. Now, with the camera on the car, it's cool to be in the driver's seat and travel at 224 miles per hour in my living room. What a thrill! And to be there, in the car, when it hits the wall... what a thrill to be there, too!. Totally cool!!

Believe it or not, this old Reb used to have a big appetite for speed. I loved fast cars and fast motorcycles. As a teenager,

I had a very heavy lead foot! Peddle to the metal, that was the Reb. "Fun, women, food and wine, we were the class of '69." Now that need has been re-placed with the need to clean up our government and bring socialism to it's knees and drive it out! And at the same time, to attack ignorance and those who proliferate it.

So... a message to the ignorant. The reason for the volcano going of in the Hawaiian islands is because they forgot to sacrifice the virgin!!

Mrs. Reb has something to say in the P.S.! Time for this old Reb to ride! We have begun moving the herd north. The weather is good starting out but Abilene, Kansas is a long way off! If we get there with most of the herd intact we stand to make a considerable sum—forty dollars a head! The corporal stayed behind with a couple of hands to man things back at the ranch. With luck, we will be home in six months or less.

See you on the bridge!

Korean War "The Forgotten War"

1897—Korea asserts independence from Chinese control

1910—Korea is annexed into the Japanese empire

May 1945—Korea is divided into two countries, because Russia and U.S. are vying against each other for control—the Cold War.

June 25, 1950—North Korea invades South Korea with permission granted to them from Russia and gets all the way to Seoul.

June 25, 1950—South Korean President Syngman Rhee executes over 100,000 people in the "Summer of Terror."

June 27, 1950—The U.S. joins the Korean War

October 1950—U.S. troops push all the way to Pyongyang, North Korea's capital

October 1950—China joins the war, fighting with North Korea

February 1950—Peace talks begin, and go on... and on... and on... and on...

May 2018—Peace talks continue

P.S. Mrs. Reb says: Tom Coburn needs to get his nose out of Oklahoma politics. We all know that there are many issues with the state funding, but we all also know that education needed a major boost. And it's not just K-12. State colleges have faced massive cuts, cuts made every quarter, every year to the point where employees are taking furlough days... because when K-12 funding ran short, they took it from higher ed. The recent tax that passed to fund education means hope for our state colleges. Hope that he is suspending. If Tom Coburn gets his way, our entire education system will be at risk for complete failure. Thanks, Tom, but... butt out! If you want to fix something, come up with solutions and stop trying to crash Oklahoma. We absolutely have to stand up and say that education matters because our children matter. Our teachers matter. Our colleges matter. WE matter!

P.S.P.S. When Trump dumped the negotiations, he did the right thing. These North Koreans have been doing it to us for sixty years. Time to give them a dose of their own medicine. When Trump does meet with that little slug, he should treat him like the spoiled little murdering child he is, "A?" Personally, I'm for nuking them and getting it over for good!
