GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

Well! Well! Well! Edward Snowden on the run! Obama's campaign secrets in Chinese hands, and he goes to California to meet Chinese officials, instead of doing it in D.C.! I wonder! I wonder what, exactly, they have and what kind of a deal the tyrant will make to keep it all quiet! The entire government is running in all directions, involved in one cover-up after another. Sounds like Chicago politics alright! More like everyday Caponeitics! Evidence showering down like rain upon our heads each day!

More reason why we need to shut them down and start all over. Our Constitution gives the citizens of this country the right to do so. In fact, it obligates us to fix it! Our founders are doing double back flips in their graves because of the state America is in! General George Washington would have shot them all as saboteurs and the cowardly thieves and liars they actually are.

They have our tax records, our medical records, our phone records, our school records, our work records, our driving records, our children's records—if you want to know what they don't know, then you are too late to ask, "What the hell?" "What the hell" do we know about them? Why don't we, the citizens, start listening in and watching every move our lying, traitorous regime is up to? "A?" Citizen drones! What are their families up to? Who are they talking to? What are their children doing at night?

As I write, yet another of the scum caught. One of our ambassadors caught in a prostitution and child sex scandal and Obama's minions try yet again to shut it up, hide it as deep as possible. Since Obama can do no wrong and he has too much to handle already, he can't possibly know what's going on. After all, this is all Bush's fault! "A?" these people leave trails of destruction and incompetence wherever they go.

They are trying to tell us it's all for our security! "B.S!" Excuse me! Did I just sneeze? There is only one reason for collecting such information on citizens—and that is for the purpose of depriving freedom and imposing a tyrannical regime through intimidation and fear, either real or imagined. You see, this is what happens when we let politicians dictate instead of we, the people, dictating to the politicians. "They work for us!"

Got to ride! This old Reb's hair is standing on the back of his neck. My horse's ears are perked up! I feel like I'm being watched! Gives you a little chill! Don't it? Spies and saboteurs everywhere!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. In the old Soviet Union and other countries like it, they had informants. People that lived around you, maybe even your next door neighbor. The purpose, of course, was to record and report your movements, conversations, people who came and went in and around your home. And for this, these people got special privileges. Maybe more winter fuel, more food rations. There is always someone willing to stab you in the back to be more powerful, to somehow be more aloof. To rule!

P.S.P.S. Let me see! Weapons of mass destruction! I believe we have heard this before. "So," Syria, the Obama's regime target to be. Lindsey Graham riding the horse of it's all about saving our allies. My position is that of let them fight it out. Keep our children out of another Middle East quagmire. Obama is just feeling his oats. Got his chest all puffed out to impress everyone. I doubt if he has the intent of doing anything about it anyway! If he does, "well," I imagine it will be just another incompetently run scandal-filled disaster, like all the rest of Obama's immaculate failures!

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal... That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security
