GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

The democraps want gun owners to carry liability insurance on their guns. Do you suppose criminals will buy insurance, just before they rob you at gun point or do a drive by on you or your house? After all, do criminals buy guns? Very rarely. Most steal guns they use, so how will you get them to buy insurance? The democrap party, the party of the ridiculous and insane! Good luck finding an insurance company that will insure such a folly... although, you might check Lloyds of London. They will insure almost anything, I understand. I wonder who insured Evil Knievel? You might try them, "A?"

Maybe we should require Willie-Billie Clinton to carry pedophile insurance! I know! We should make every politician in the country buy collusion and graft, bribery and treason insurance with a special lying sack of crap clause. It should be applied to Nancy PP and Chuckie Schumeroid! After all, they lie; they steal; they start wars to cover their crimes. They abandon allies and citizens at will, anywhere in the world! And while we suffer, they have it all—food, mansions, jets, cars, our money, private islands on which to commit pedophilia. Why? Because they live above we the troglodytes... not among us! It's time they pay the price!!!

Time for this old Reb to ride!

"Mr.. Harris, you and Little Bob stay here! Corporal, let's ride!"

"The vaquero and some of the Bar T boys are coming up from behind, Cap!"

"We've got to get to my house fast! I see smoke there, too!"

"My god! Cap!"

"My wife and girl! Hurry! Hurry!"

"The door is open to the house, Cap!"

"I hear something, Corporal! A voice! A voice! It's my wife! There! In the well, out back!"

"They are safe, Captain! She says they saw them coming and ran out back. There wasn't anywhere to hide, so they climbed down into the well! The Bar T boys put out the fire! You're lucky; just a small amount of damage."

"Just glad my wife and girl are alright! They ransacked the house, but I can replace that stuff!"

"Oh, Captain, I almost died!"

"I know the feeling, Corporal!"

See you on the bridge!

P.S. The fourth of July is coming and, traditionally, the price of gas always goes up! Get ready to scrape the bottom of your financial barrel! I don't know about you,, but this old Reb is going broke, not woke, just to drive to the store and then everything is going into orbital prices on the shelves!

I am thinking of sending a bill to these incompetent jerks in D.C. and, if I have to, take them into small claims court to get my money.

I had a relative that served during the War of 1812. When he mustered out he had to sue the government to get the whole $60 the government owed him for six months service! Sound familiar?

Some things never change!

If you're a tradesman, charge those lie-yers triple and that goes double-triple for politicians!!!! I do!!!! What are they going to do? Their own work? That's a good one, "A?" Pick up your tools and go home!!!!

P.S.P.S. In November 2020 we were energy independent for the first time since 1959!!!! SIXTY freaking years of not being energy independent because of politicians and their greed for power. We have enough oil to be independent for FOUR HUNDRED YEARS... plenty of time to develop real alternatives. Which means the only reason for this is destruction.

By the way, did you know that diesel truck drivers in the north-east are stranded? Why? Because there is no diesel fuel up there. At all. There are no oil pipelines in the northeast. Why? Politicians and greed for power.

If that doesn't terrify you, watch the monkey trials of the Senate January 6th committee commit treason. Buckle up.
