

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Hunter has raised his ugly head again, back as an executive, selling our reserves to the Chinese with the help of his "good ole daddy!"

Will the treason never stop? They go into the Ukraine and do the same thing, then, when they get caught, they start a war. We need our fuel for our on population, but that doesn't concern the regime. As far as this old Reb is concerned, the Chinese can go drill their own oil in the Gobi Desert! The Chinese sell weapons to the Russians and old Joe bite-me sells our gas out the back door to the Chinese.

The democommie party wants us broke. They are doubling down before election time. Bite-me is signing b.s. law after b.s. law since the recent rulings of the Supreme Court! Bite-me has set his destructo-minions loose in the blue states once again to loot and destroy. That is what they call "protests."

We, as a nation are in real trouble. If we don't stop these treasonous politicians NOW it will soon be too late. After all, they are re-deploying our troops after President Trump brought them home. Do you want your child to die in a war Joe and Hunter (with the help of Nancy PP and Chuckie Schumeroid) started to cover up their crimes?

The Ruskies cut off the natural gas from the Germans and they are not happy. All of Europe is gearing up. Welcome to the beginning of World War III!!!!

Time for this old Reb to ride.

"Time to get our herd moving north again, Corporal!"

"It's going to be a hot summer, Captain! I'm concerned about the water this year, not to mention the increasing raids by Comanches!"

"We need to leave a few hands behind to help protect, if needed, and hire a few more for the trail."

"You're right, Captain."

"Mr. Harris! I want you to stay and help Rhea run things while we are gone."

"Aye, Cap! We'll make it as safe around here as Windsor Castle!"

"I know I can count on you, Mr. Harris!"

See you on the bridge!

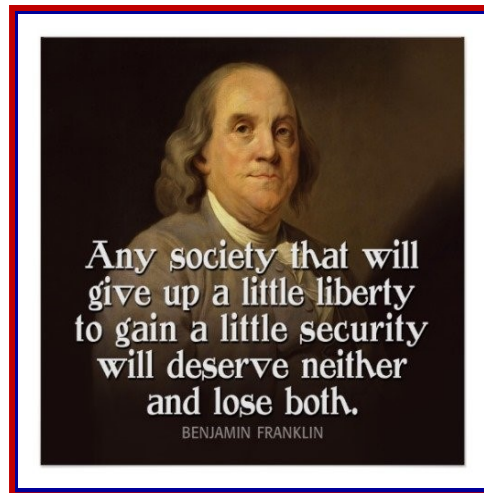

P.S. So much for the Abraham accords with the Arabs. Good "Ole Joe" has really screwed that up, too. You know what all this democrap feels like? It feels like shutting the pickup truck door on my finger, which this old Reb did today. My finger bled like our economy after "Ole Joe" got his hands on it. Man, "oh," man, did that hurt! I liked to have never got the door open and my stinkin' finger out. That will be the future of our country's economy! Damn, that hurt!!! Will we ever be able to open the door again????

How did I shut the pickup door on my finger? Don't ask!!!!

P.S.P.S. It is now crystal clear, with no doubt whatsoever, that the democrap party is out to destroy this nation. Every time a democrap gets in the White House here's what happens. The price of gasoline goes up because they stop us from drilling. Interest rates get conveniently raised by the Fed to the alarm of everyone. In fact, under Jimmy Carter the Fed kept raising interest rates and in the end went to nearly 20%!! The housing market is tanking. They are doing it again. Democraps in the White House also stop our drilling and take us from being (under Trump) energy independent for the first time since 1959 to begging the Saudi prince for more oil, when they are already maxed out in capacity. So, when the price of gasoline triples, the price of everything else skyrockets. Today they said inflation was just a little over 9%. Balderdash. It's more like 15-17%. And then there's the election fraud that occurred in several states. And the Supreme Court ruling that has all the democraps screaming for destruction of our entire legal system. Buckle up, patriots, it's gonna get rough.
