

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

Just this last week I attended a local gun show. As I was walking up and down the aisles, I saw a bunch of guys there dressed as Civil War Yankees. So, I walked up and introduced myself as a descendent of Robert E. It seemed they had been to a re-enactment at Shiloh, in Tennessee just a couple of weeks ago.

I recall, I just recounted one of the most murderous fights of that battle (see Rebel Speaks, Vol. 2, Issue 10). Seeing them made me think about the brothers, cousins, fathers and uncles that lined up and volleyed at each other at barely thirty yards at times. Or worse yet, rushing into the smoke and jamming your bayonet into someone you didn't know until you retrieved your weapon and his hat comes off. You recognize your best childhood friend as he goes to his knees and he falls to the ground, dead! I try, always, to bring attention to the great sacrifices laid down by those who came before us! We don't show enough reverence sometimes and those who work every day to tear down the legacy of this great nation will work even harder to take advantage of our apathy, because they could care less about the great sacrifices others have made. They care only for their own power, no matter who you gotta screw to get there!

Here we are now, with the most inept man that has ever been elected to the post of President, running again, wanting to be re-elected so he can finish the job of breaking our economy into itsy-bitsy little pieces and burying it alive! And, by doing so, pitting us once more at our civil throats, so he can claim complete suspension of our constitution and voilà, a brand new war between the states! All for the benefit of a few wanna-be aristocrats! For the purpose of making us totally vulnerable to our enemies, who would love nothing else than to carve our country into little provinces, invoke Sharia law and send us all spinning into totalitarian oblivion! With, of course, Mr. Obama Pie and Nancy P at the helm. Don't forget, we will need to be "ruled!"

And this is exactly what this next election is going to be about. Whether Mr. "O" and his regime will hold power and take complete governmental control over our lives, property and freedoms. These people have already given us a preview. They ignore all and any laws that concern what they can or cannot do as public officials within the government. I mean, they think that stuff was really meant as a joke and doesn't really concern them anyway! Look at Eric Holder. A total disregard for the responsibilities of his job to the point of being a criminal himself! What the "hell?" I've never seen so many so guilty of so much usurpation of our constitution, ever!

Total corruption is everywhere in D.C. Even John Sullivan, the "treasonous," couldn't figure out why he got dumped (Vol. 2, Issue 12)! "Hey," John, you don't suppose it's because you sold us out, you stinking back-shooter? The only one missing in Washington, D.C. is Al Capone! I'm sure that Al would want to be top dog. I don't think, if that were the case, Mr. Obama would surely be in a subservient position... considering the sniveling coward would never cross choppers with Old Scar Face anyway (they used to call Thompson machine guns choppers, just in case you've forgotten any of your "gangsta lingo").

Our fallen ancestors, even when shooting at one another, never thought that our lives would be turned so upside down, while a few ransack our treasury and our freedoms so as to become kings. No, our ancestors fought each other in order to define, forever, the cost of freedom... and charged each and every one of us with their blood and lives to keep our country intact and free!

To stand and weather the shot and canister to see that these liars and thieves are thrown out and chastised for their contempt for the rest of us. So as did my ancestors, I'll fight on until freedom rings supreme forever in my land and each and every criminal now in our government is in jail or dealt with as the traitors they have all become at our expense!

Well, once again this Old Reb has got to ride. The bee just flew past my head. Where's my bugler? Skirmishers to the front! I see blue in the trees! The conquistadors came through here looking for the Seven Cities of Cibola (which they never found)! But we shall find death here today!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. If we fail on election day and these criminals take complete power, heads will roll and they shall be ours! Death is not even a close competitor to the loss of one's freedom!

P.S.P.S. The Old Reb is playing games with your head. At the end of each piece I have begun to include references to a historical place and time during the War of the Secession. Can you figure out where I am? If so, post it back to the Old Reb!

<http://rebelspeaks.weebly.com>

Check out our website to reply to the Old Reb, read past issues and to contact us!
 "The Rebel Speaks" newsletter's purpose is to share thought provoking viewpoints and inspire discussion and debate about today's political issues... and make you mad!