

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Bite-me goes to Saudi Arabia to meet with the King and the Crown Prince! I can hear it now... they tell the King that Joe-Joe Butt bite wants an audience and the King says, "I already have signing chimpanzees! Why do I want to speak to a horse's arse? If he wants to send his camel vice president, I wouldn't mind going for a Sahara moon light ride!"

By the way, what has the Camel been up to lately? It's certainly not the border.

So, the Chinese sell fentanyl to the cartels here in the good old U.S. of A. and they bring more distributors over the border and viola, more idiots die thinking that they are the chosen and end up in the Himalayan fantasy of utopia!

Where the hell did the Beaver and Wally go? Where did sanity and morality go? Out the window, with our borders, our religions and our children's education! What replaces it are children being told that they are not as they were born.

What next? Sodom and Gomorrah? Too late! We already have that... it's called Hollywood and Las Vegas!! New York would make a great new Capua and D.C. a new Rome deluxe!!!

Should we welcome "Ole Joe" back as the new Lawrence of Arabia? Do you suppose that he will follow Lawrence and ride his tricycle into a ditch and break his neck... while liking his favorite ice cream cone?

Time for this old Reb to ride.

"Big Bob, what do you think? I'm going to town to buy new weapons and ammunition, and get rid of these old arms. We don't need muzzle loaders anymore! Time for some new Colt revolvers and some new Winchester lever loading repeaters!"

"I heard they will change the odds!"

"I'm sure, Big Bob! Remember the war?"

"How can I forget, Captain?"

"Remember the new weapons that had never been seen before?"

"I do, indeed, Captain."

"Well, here we go again, Big Bob; the slaughter never stops, it just becomes more efficient! Tall Elk and the rest will go the way of the South, Bob."

"I agree, Captain! There's going to be blood!"

"There will be, Bob, but without the battles where thirty thousand or more are killed in less than three days!"

"But, never the less, blood will run, Captain! The west will turn red and it won't be from the red dirt or red canyon sunsets!"

See you on the bridge!

P.S. The democommies are trying to jam-cram another ban on assault weapons, and their magazines through Congress. Another attempt to destroy as much of our constitutional rights as possible. They are doubling down, since they are running out of time before election day. Personally, I don't own an assault weapon, but this old Reb thinks it's time!

H.R. 1808, is a sweeping ban on semi-automatic long guns (America's most popular rifle). It would also ban standard capacity magazines of 15 rounds or more.

H.R. 2814 would repeal the PLCAA (Protection of Lawful Commerce in Arms Act), which prohibits lawsuits against the gun industry for criminal misuse of firearms.

P.S.P.S. The democommies are going full bore, hard core in their desperate attempt to transform our freedom into a communist nightmare where those in power live in utopia above the common people. We must say NO! Buckle up, patriots!

Second Amendment

"A well-regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms shall not be infringed."

In the Revolutionary War era, the word "militia" applied to groups of men that got together in order to protect their towns and communities - ordinary people using their own weapons to stand in protection against the possibility of an overreaching government.
