GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

Congress has a plan! I have an idea, too... and it's guaranteed to work! First, we all go to D.C. and storm the Congressional buildings, grab these corrupt liars and cheats by the nape of the neck and throw them out the door. All of them. Then eminent domain all of their ill gotten booty (Did I say "booty?" I meant property they took from us—the taxpayers), confiscate their finances and throw them all in jail where they belong. Take all that money and refill the treasury. Hold new elections and move the whole thing out to Dodge City, just north and west of the cattle yards! In the summer the breeze will send that beautiful smell their way, so they would hurry and get their jobs done! Out in the middle of the country we can get our hands on them from equal distances. Make our new representatives drive their own cars, live in supplied housing, give them an HMO and $35,000 a year—and that's it. We did not elect our politicians to use our economy for their own private gold mine! And if they don't like it, they can always resign and go the hell home! Enact the Fair Tax!

I got this idea from a man in history that did it! Although he took it a little further by banishing some politicians and sending the rest to get reinstated by being guests in gladiator games! "Ah." The good old days! When people knew what to do with usurpers and corrupt officials! By the way, the name of the man was Vespasian. After he was done, the Roman Empire was financially in the black and out of the red for the first time in 100 years... and he kept it that way by being fiscally responsible for the next 30 years! What a concept: "fiscally responsible politicians." Personally, I'm in favor of the games, but then I'm a sportsman. Wouldn't you pay to see John Kerry square off with Mitch McConnell, with gladius swords in their hands? Which one would fall into the fetal position first? My money is on Kerry.

Of course, most people don't even know that we live in a republic, not a Commie dominated democracy! If you don't know the difference, I'm not going to tell you because you would miss the opportunity to actually learn something! So... read on! If you can! The rest of you out there, well, grow some kahunas and don't back down from these cowardly thieves of our lives!

Either they get control—and I mean now—or let's bring them home! One or the other, because if we leave these people in D.C., we will all end up with a Chi-Com AK47 pointed at the back of our heads! If you don't believe me, then look around. Where is the Third Reich? A? How about this one—where is the power of the church and the Pope? Anyone know? Anyone seen a Pharaoh drive by in his royal chariot lately? All, and I mean all empires, kingdoms, republics and democracies eventually fall. What most people don't realize is that we're just getting started by most standards! And if we let the weak and the cry babies continue to bring us down, then we deserve it! The Chi-Coms are rebuilding their navy (so they say) to deal with any American contingency world wide! Doesn't that sound like they are preparing for war? And the Ruskie are also doing the same thing.

So what—are you going to wait it out? Thinking you can fight them with your pitiful little .30-30? With all that training you get from "Guns & Ammo" magazine? Wake up, people! These Congressmen and Senators in D.C. are so inept. I'm really surprised we are not all in re-education camps with our new little red Commie manifesto's already!

If you think I am trying to make you mad, you are dead on right! I am! If this is what it takes to get people off their over-luxuriated, X-box fat asses, then so be it! So, get ready, folks, because I'm just getting started! If you think these corrupt individuals are going to come through for you, then you are as fruity as Paris Hilton (what a waste of bones).

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Am I suggesting storming government buildings and actually putting hands on these people and dragging them out by the collar? It's been done time and again! Time and again! We would not be the first nor the last! We are on the brink of disaster!

I am from a long line of rebels... we stood down the British with our first rebel flag—the Stars and Stripes!

"I like a little rebellion now and then. It's like a storm in the atmosphere."

Thomas Jefferson
