

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

The latola and Putin in bed together. Putin is grabbing for any ally he can get. Meanwhile, "Ole Joe" takes another jab... or was that the robot Joe? Maybe this will be the one that gets him?

Consider that he is selling the Chinese, "our enemy," the U.S. oil reserves to the tune of twenty five million barrels... you know, the oil we need for OUR emergencies? Why do the Chinese need that much oil?? Well, it's not for their people; it's for their military. Remember, they are communists and could give a shiit about their people. They want Taiwan! They want it real bad. Now Nancy PP goes to Taiwan. What the hell does the drunken, geriatric lush think she is going to accomplish?

It just gets worse and worse and worse every day, with no light at the end of the tunnel. Like I've said again and again... we have no leadership! What we have are usurping criminals trying to impose their Cosa Nostra rule on us. They have no interest in doing the country's business, only in doing the country in for their own greed and averice!

I am tired of all the fools and outlaws ruling over us. Joe bite-me is not what our Founding Fathers had in mind. They had in mind freedom and prosperity for the every day man. The people upon which the burden of prosperity lies.

Not the worthless, better-than-thou politicians, as pirates, who have boarded the U.S.S. Constitution and thrown all the powder for it's guns overboard (like our Constitution, our economy and our rights as citizens of a free nation). A nation without kings, supreme leaders, dictators or, especially, Obamas, Clintons, Bidens, etc.!

Time for this Reb to ride!

"Time to head the heard north again, Mr. Harris!"

"Aye, Captain. It's going to be a hot one! I would imagine, short on water, too!"

"I hope the Comanches head somewhere else while we are gone, Mr. Harris!"

"With extra hands staying behind, there should be more protection".

"The Corporal's wife and girl will stay with Rhea while we are gone!"

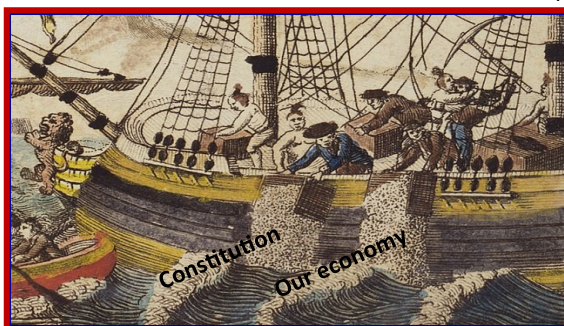

"Sounds like a plan!, Captain!"

"We can only hope, Mr. Harris!"

See you on the bridge!

P.S. In case you didn't know, Custer graduated last in his class... and look what he accomplished. The Seventh Cavalry followed him into one of the worst military disasters in our country's history.

Bite-me, as well, graduated among the last in his class, and look at his disaster as it unfolds! I wonder, are the two related? Do you suppose "Ole Joe" will use Custer's strategy on Putin? You know, the sudden attack without mercy! We all know how well that worked out at the Little Big Horn!

Don't we?

Are you willing to ride into hell for the democrap-democommie party? Incompetence kills!

P.S.P.S. Well, well, well... the proof is in. Pigs can fly, after all! Nancy Pelosi goes to the far east. To the tune of $90 MILLION dollars. And why did she go to Taiwan? To tour a company that she is invested in? At our expense? Nancy PP is frequently intoxicated at her press conferences, with severely slurred speech and incoherent statements. So, we sent a lush to the Far East. Democraps have put both Joe, a feeble old man and the Camel, a word salad idiot, in front of the world on purpose. Bragging? Advertising our weakness? With that in mind, realize that we have no oil reserves. Our military is utterly in tatters; we've handed billions in weapons to our enemies in the Middle East and we are being blatantly invaded at the Southern border, with our own government shipping completely unidentified millions of illegals all over the country. Now, why would they do that? Destruction is why.
