GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

Congress is on vacation! My God! Our country is broke and on it's way into Third World status and those ladies and gentlemen are gone "fishin" - be back when they catch the big one! They don't deserve a vacation until they straighten this mess out. They should all be under lock and key with an ankle bracelet on every one of them. It only took these fools 2 years to screw us all! I would bet "we the people" could do it to them in less than 10 days!

Our senators and representatives should be ashamed to show their faces at home — in fact, why don't they all just keep going, get out and stay out. If any one of us, the little people, "F'd" up our job so bad and then asked the boss for vacation with pay, we would be thrown out on our rear ends! The boss would say "good luck with your vacation with pay there, Buddy!" In fact, you might even get the V.I.P. treatment as the security guards give you a royal escort off the company property and threaten to shoot you on sight should you show yourself there again!

Outrageous! Beyond belief! Flabbergasting! Are we mice? Are we men and women?

If we continue to let our corrupt Washington entourage march us down the path of oblivion, then we are surely mice to be devoured by the monster we have created for ourselves... our "Id," if you will (that which destroys us from within). They use our weaknesses against us to keep us, the people, at each other's throats. They call it slight of hand; any good magician knows it well.

Our politicians have become "The Monsters From The Id!" Watch an old movie called "The Forbidden Planet" (1951), starring Walter Pidgeon, Leslie Nielsen and Anne Francis. A planet is discovered that had supported a vast and advanced civilization (the Krell).

They had built an immense machine that all the people in this culture had mental access to. That's when the monsters showed up and the Krell died in masses, horribly murdered by monsters created, out of control, by the minds of those that gave the machine it's power. Before the Krell could

I'm sure the Romans felt the same way when the Germans were battering down the gates and preparing to pillage, burn and destroy. Their politicians were engaged in the same corrupt practices that Washington engages in now. Corruption never changes, only the name of the usurper and the time he/she lives in changes. The rest is a factor that is universal and always predictable. The only variable is "How deep is the cookie jar?"

So, how deep is the American cookie jar? I think I hear something "scratching" at the bottom of the cookie jar! Why, it's our President and all the boys scarfing up the crumbs!

♪ Scarfing up the crumbs! Scarfing up the crumbs! Congress will come rejoicing, scarfing up our crumbs! ♪

Yes, Mrs. Obama, we are all enjoying eating our little cakes! Yum! Yum! Yum! How was your dinner last night?

Even though the stock market is standing on it's head, all in Washington are snug as a bug in a rug! They are all protected from what the rest of us are going through by laws they enacted to keep us, the little people, at bay while they devour the carcass once known as the greatest nation the world has yet known.

Is this what it's like to be tackled by a velociraptor, having it munch down on our guts while we watch? Could be!

Got to go, I hear my mom calling! "Hurry up, son! Dinner is ready! We're having cake!"

See you on the bridge!

I am from a long line of rebels... we stood down the British with our first rebel flag—the Stars and Stripes!

"Let them eat cake."

Reportedly spoken in the 1700's by a French princess upon learning the people had no bread, relating her obliviousness to the plight of the French people.

"Arbitrary power is most easily established on the ruins of liberty abused to licentiousness."

George Washington
