

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

To Condoleezza Rice! I read what you said about taking D.C. by storm (July 2012 speech in Park City, UT). I have the balls; do you? I'm willing to put it all up to get back my country. Are you? Will you hold my hand when I start across the bridge? I'm going whether you are there or not. I'm going because my ancestors and my creator demand it. I stand my ground. How about you? are you willing to give up your position and riches? Will you run when the bee passes your head, because Obama will not go quietly! If he does, it will surprise the hell out of this Old Reb!

There are people in our military who will back him up because they want what he has to offer them! Power and riches to do so and thus become mercenaries on our check book. The only way for these criminals in Washington to hang on to it is to declare marshal law. Hell, they have broken every constitutional law on the books concerning the executive branch anyway! What's to prevent these Marxists from doing it in order to keep us from prosecuting each and every one of them as traitors?

Whatever happens after the election, it is not going to be pretty. I find Condoleezza to be one of the most competent women in America and she has been there and seen the beast close up. When she says we need to march in and take our government back by storm, then I believe we can take that to the bank!

Look around the world... dictators are dropping like flies. Why not here? After all, isn't that what Mr. Obama pie basically has been doing by ignoring the constitution and the laws of our country? We have been living under a third world tyrant for almost four years now! Another term of these outlaws and we're all cooked for good!

Remember a guy in Liberia, Africa—which is on the continent's Atlantic coast—about 1985? He had an eighth grade education and had the rank of Sargent in Liberia's army. He and others performed a coup one night and suddenly Liberia had it's newest leader! His name was Doe. And this man, now a self-made dictator, proceeded to raid the treasury, using it as his own personal treasure cave and raided it at will. After another short civil war, yet another dictator was waiting in the wings—this time a doctor. Thus, after cutting off Mr. doe's masculinity, his ears and nose (and a very short court hearing), Mr. Doe was promptly shot twice in the head! Nothing has changed... the good old Doc, as well, is a richer man while his people are screwed!

How about Idi Amin? Well, I think it's now safe to say we can add Mr. Obama pie to that list! It would seem that the dumb and dumber will, when asked by the Pie-meister, to throw their ignorant masses of children in front of the volley when the civil war begins.

If this man continues to rule, there will be a shooting war! I hate to tell you this, but, as history shows, all nations go through multiple internal wars. And sometimes the bad guys win. When they win, they take revenge. We can no longer wait that long. Now is the time, before it's too late! Depose Obama and his racketeering organization and let's see where this usurper is from, for real.

Enough! Enough! Enough!

Time to ride for this old Reb. Stonewall is eager!

Scouts report Halec's army of the Potomac is on the turnpike and unaware of our presence yet! We are swinging our guns into action and have begun to fire. Look at 'em scatter!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. When I started this article, I had not yet read what Michael Savage had said about this exact subject ("Could 2012 be America's last Presidential Election?"). So, you see, I'm not the only one that sees it coming! Don't forget to duck!! The voice of reason is screaming it's lungs out! Can you hear it?

P.S.P.S. If anyone should know about living under a repressive conqueror, we in the South do. We've been living under the boot of the North for one hundred and fifty seven years! Go ask an American Indian in Oklahoma, or any other state! After all, the South was a sovereign nation! And so were the 1st Americans!
