

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Food for thought from the Reb:

Confederates were fighting for slavery?

Really?

Robert E Lee and Stonewall Jackson, 2 of the best known Southern Generals, said slavery was "a moral and political evil" - in fact discussions about eliminating slavery were already taking place by the 1860's.

Lee was actually against secession, but stood with Virginia and home because the federal government was sending "troops" into Southern states. In fact, 75,000 northern "militia" were sent to Virginia, Tennessee, Arkansas and North Carolina.

The South's brave men fought for home, for patriotism, for fear of a voracious federal government, self-determination... independence. (read the letters of secession on our website, listed below). They fought for their businesses, their livelihood, against the brutality of the federal "troops." They fought against an invading, occupying force of arms and their property being reduced to ashes as American citizens.

The war was started by the South when Lincoln went to re-provision Fort Sumter in South Carolina?

Really?

South Carolina had already seceded from the Union, along with six other states, forming the Confederacy. No country is going to allow a foreign power to have a military fort on it's own soil.

Seceding from the Union was illegal, so Lincoln had the right to attack?

Really?

The Southern states stepped away from the Union under the 10th Amendment to the Constitution, a right which was well accepted. Ask Texas.

Time for this old Reb to ride. We made it to Abilene, sold our herd and made a nice profit! The boys were falling down drunk for three days. Most have massive hangovers, and heading back on horseback isn't helping. Abilene was pretty wild.. There were four shootings, a rape and a lynching during our stay. Fortu-

"Every record has been destroyed or falsified, every book rewritten, every picture has been repainted, every statue and street building has been renamed, every date has been altered.

And the process is continuing day by day and minute by minute.

History has stopped. Nothing exists except an endless present in which the Party is always right."

~ George Orwell, 1984

nately none of ours.

Little Bob tied Big bob to his saddle, he has yet to wake up.

That Bar-T boy's eye still twitches every time he hears anything that sounds like thunder.

Mr. Harris has a fancy new pair of boots. All is well!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Why isn't Feinstein and her china man not under arrest and being interrogated?

Edmondson for governor? Welcome back Obama!

P.S.P.S. John McCain is kaput. I salute him as a veteran. I blame him for being part of the Washington problem.

<http://rebelspeaks.weebly.com> - Congressional contacts page

"The Rebel Speaks" opinion letter's purpose is to share thought provoking viewpoints and inspire discussion and debate about today's political issues... and make you mad!

Are you mad yet? Congressional contact info on our website!