GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

I hate to say it but... am I right or what? And all I had to do was pick up and read a history book or two and "viola," a picture of the future can be found. You see, history really does repeat itself. Over and over again. It's not magic or rocket science. People are the same then as now. different gadgets, but the same problems existed then as now. Love, hate, greed, etc.; it is universal, a constant if you will.

There has always been those who want to rule for whatever reason and those who want to be free. Those who want it for free and those who work for it and build it in order to prosper. All this with these middle eastern goat herders has been going on since before humans could record it. And what is beyond me is why we don't just finish it once and for all. We know how and it won't take a nuke to do it.

We have to give them what they want! "Death!" Death and destruction so horrible, the Japanese look at them and say, "We tried to warn you, but you just wouldn't listen! Dumb goat herders!" Do you know why Vlad Dracula is a feared name, even to this day and time? And, no, it's not because of some idiot legend of him hanging upside down from the rafters or sucking the blood from the necks of virgins. It's because he was even more cruel than the Muslim and ran them out of Romania and became a national hero. That's why! That is the only thing that will defeat them. Maximum cruelty without remorse as they do the same to us!

Beheadings of innocent people in order to terrorize us into running the other way. How about we film one of their Imans being thrown to a couple of hybrid Arkansas 450 lb. razor back hogs? Then tell ISIS, "this is what is waiting for each and every one of them," and watch them run!

Oh, yea, a gorgeous good looking American woman should have the pleasure of pulling the release handle to let the pigs loose, "A!" ISIS would disappear and all these screaming murderers would not raise their stupid heads again, afraid of going to Hell the hard way!!!

Since they are pagans, this is all they understand—cruelty! Their religion is a cult of nothing but cruelty, of which they wish to inflict a plague of upon the world.

In 1443 Vlad Dracula and his brother, Radu, were held by the Turks of the Ottoman (Muslim) Empire as security for their father's 'cooperation' in the Ottoman's fight to take Europe. But in 1444 Vlad's family led a Hungarian army against the Turks—and Vlad and Radu paid the physical price. He was released after his father's death in 1448. By the 1450's Dracula was a ruler in his own right and paid the Ottomans back for the torture of his youth... in spades.

If you think the old Reb must be a cruel man, then you should avoid Hollywood movies!

Time to ride! We just lost thirty two hundred today standing toe to toe with the invaders.

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Cops shooting unarmed civilians to death... well, I thought you guys were trained marksmen. I would think a guy wielding a knife at ten feet was no competition. You can put that shot anywhere you want, but instead, you seem to prefer to murder someone. Black, white... it's no different. I mean, you guys work for us, the tax payers. What are we getting for our money, s pack of gunslingers? There is a thing called mercy. Where is yours? Justify it any way you want to, but murder is still murder, with or without a badge! I guess I, the old Reb, is just a better shot!

P.S.P.S. Can you imagine Tim Alban and all that government armor, if he could get it? He'd probably play G.I. Joe in the tank, and strut around his office in the armor saying, "mirror, mirror on the wall, who's the greatest ciomrad of all?" After all, he once said to me that "only police and military should have guns!"
