

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

You have got to be kidding me! The Tulsa City Council wants to be re-elected! How many more years of bickering? A bunch of self-serving babies. They all need to go, so Tulsa can get on with it's much needed business. It is time to get new blood on the Council. People with vision, people willing to earn the money they are paid. That is, your tax dollars that they stick in their bank accounts on payday. So... they need to step up to the plate and play ball. I well know what can be done when they get their act together. After all, I helped in the building of the city of Tulsa and my sweat and blood is in it's very walls.

Just think, Mr. Easley spent God only knows how much taxpayer time and money last year chasing the mayor. If you let him back there, you deserve it. This guy is interested in one thing and one thing only... getting publicity. He reminds me of the recent visitor to Tulsa - that lying lack of mush, Joe "the jerk" Bidden!

If these kind of people continue to be in office at any level, we are "screwed!"

So, like I've said before, "Enough! Enough! Enough!" Time to kick 'em out and start over from scratch. Start small, as it were! Then, maybe, after a little practice at replacing small government officials we can go after the big game! Yep. Throw them all out in the next election and start from scratch!

After all, would you let your kids continue to drive if they could not keep from smashing the crap out of your favorite vehicle every time they got behind the wheel? Would you continue to fish with someone who hooked you in the ass the last five times you got in the boat with him?

Every time I think about the Tulsa City Council, I can come up with more reasons why we need to bar "Liars," oops, I meant lawyers, from holding political office while still members of the Bar Association! What they do is nothing short of sabotage.

The Councilors now in power are so worried about getting on camera that they couldn't care less about the regular Joe Blow citizen.

Like I've said before, we are the little people. What the big boys forget is, it was the little people that just toppled the Rat of Tripoli! Little people stormed the Bastille. Little people took control of Libya.

Vote 'em out! Vote 'em all out!

See you on the bridge!

I am from a long line of rebels... we stood down the British with our first rebel flag—the Stars and Stripes!

"When a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce [the people] under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security."

Thomas Jefferson

In the beginning of change, the Patriot is a scarce man; brave, hated and scorned.

When his cause succeeds, however, the timid join him, for then it costs nothing to be a patriot"

Mark Twain

"Those who stand for nothing, fall for anything.

Alexander Hamilton
