GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Last week Mr. Obama-pie says "I have no strategy!" So, we are to believe it when he suddenly, just a few days later, reaches into his coat pocket and pulls the solution right out—as if by some miracle he is once again going to save the day. I mean, he must have been up all night, every night, using his brilliant mind to save us all. What a crock.

This guy and his B.S. entourage haven't got a clue. Real stratagem takes time, not a couple of meetings between golf games in the course club house.

Let's see now, he has decided to bomb positions in Syria. Have those insane morons forgotten Russia is allied to Syria, and yet, they continue to poke the bear.

I can see it in my mind... Alexander the Great, sitting in his tent back behind his army while engaging in his favorite hobby, Kendama. His generals come to him and say, "What is the strategy?" The enemy is standing in the field, waiting to wipe us out! He says "Go draw a line in the dirt, and throw a couple of rocks at them. That will impress 'em! I've got to get back to my game... don't bother me! I'm sure that you guys will come up with something! By the way, if you get wiped out, don't blame me!" Of course, Mr. Obama-pie is neither Alexander the Great, nor is he Napoleon.

And now the usurper has decided to hire mercs! Did you know that at the end of the Roman empire, their army was made up of mercenaries and very few actual Romans? They were paying the Germans to fight their battles for them because of their incompetent government... and the dumbing down of their own population!

Although Mr. Obama-pie and Alexander and Napoleon all share a common trait—the want and need to rule... the difference between Alexander, Napoleon and the usurper is that they were not stupid or disconnected from what was going on.

My friends. ISIS has probably already crossed our border, since we no longer have a closed border. Hannibal is at the gates, my friends. Hannibal is at the gate!

It's time for this old Reb to ride again. The army of the Tennessee is on the move. We left Atlanta looking for a fight! It won't be long in coming!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. It seems I've found a couple more of my relatives, who fought the King. They were Scottish Jacobites. They served time in the King's "toll booth" and then were exiled to the Americas, never to see home again. And they can no roll over in their graves because Scotland is still not free! That which they gave everything for is still under occupation.

Freedom! I will never give fealty to any potentate and that means Obama too!!

P.S.P.S. The witches of New York held services in OKC. Why our governor and the Mayor didn't stop it is beyond me. What next, the golden calf? Ra? They should have been run out of town on a rail, "tarred and feathered," at the very least. Sent back to New York City, where they belong! Y'all please feel free to not come back to Oklahoma!!

Not What the Founding Fathers Intended!

In 1912 the Democrat party took control of the White House with Woodrow Wilson, and took control of Congress as well.

What resulted was an unparalleled power grab. They created the Federal Reserve (the central banking system our Founding Fathers warned against) and the Federal income tax!

The ultimate power grab:
Originally under the Constitution
U.S. Senators were elected by the state legislatures in order to protect the powers and funds of the states from a power grab by the feds... and to keep control of the federal government in the hands of the people, not the government.

In 1917 the Democrats passed the 17th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and took all government control away from the states by setting up the direct election of U.S. Senators by popular vote.

Now... how do you convince 50 states to give up that much power?
