

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

I, the Rebel, have found an honest business! Several weeks ago I took a bracelet to be worked on and have some repairs done. When the piece came back it was worse for wear than when dropped off. All is now well, because of a responsible business owner.

Lyon's Indian Store (111 S Detroit Ave, Tulsa) is the business in question. I personally am satisfied with the outcome. This kind of thing is every businesses' nightmare. I have lived it myself and do not wish it on anyone. You know, I spend a lot of time literately assassinating Liars, thieves, or lawyers and politicians—and it is a relief to find that there is an island of honesty!

After all, I have been dealing now with the dishonesty of two lying turkeys that built the disaster I call my home. The Dorsey twins—two of the most dishonest liars that ever walked this planet. That is Dorsey Builders in Verdigris. They have walked out on warranties and responsibilities on contracts all over Rogers County and have their lie-yeer—I mean scum sucking partner lawyer—tie everything up in courts all over northeast Oklahoma. Now going on seven years, I don't expect to ever get satisfaction. Especially since I'm somewhere in the middle of the line of those who would like to have five minutes with these three scumbags (Dorsey Builders owners) in a locked room. They owe me thousands!

"More than anything, we want you to be happy."

Larry and Janie Lyon, business owners who care about their customers and demonstrate it very well.

"Before us lie two paths -- honesty and dishonesty. The shortsighted embark on the dishonest path; the wise on the honest. For the wise know the truth; in helping others we help ourselves; and in hurting others we hurt ourselves. Character overshadows money, and trust rises above fame. Honesty is still the best policy."

"Every adversity, every failure, every heartache carries with it the seed on an equal or greater benefit."

All quotes from Napoleon Hill, American Writer

So, when I say you can take the Lyons (Lyons Indian Store) honesty to the bank, then believe me, that check is cashable! We need more business owners like Lyons.

We need less of conmen such as the Dorsey twins! Not only do the twins leave you high and dry, holding the bag, but they use undocumented, untrained labor. When you see a man take a measurement by holding the board up and eyeballing the distance, and then putting his thumb on the spot for a marker to cut it instead of measuring with a measuring tape (because he can't read it and he can't speak English), then you know something is wrong!

Well, time for this Reb to ride. The Yankees have moved some big guns up on rail cars. We're going to tear up the rails tonight and attack the guns in the morning.

See you on the bridge!

P.S. when doing business, always remember integrity and honesty really are the best policy. Your reputation means everything. That is honor! The greatest prize of all.

P.S.P.S. Have you ever heard the Jerry Clower joke about the monkey and the "lying coon dawg?" If I had a "coon huntin' monkey," I think I'd send him to visit the Dorseys!
