GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

Now comes our winter of discontent! Putin is threatening nukes and Uncle Joe the fool and his morons are posturing back. Prices are flying higher than the Blue Ridge Mountains. Shortages of staples for our basic needs are increasing. I can't wait.

What do you think Santa has in store for us? Will he be able to afford to feed the deer for his sleigh? The elves are asking where they are going to get parts for building the toys. Mrs. Santa had to cut back on the cookie production and Rudolph had to turn off his nose because of high electricity costs. I also heard that Santa had his sleigh equipped with anti rocket flare provisions and a battery for entering Commiefornia air space! The Sleigh is also coated with a radar absorbing coating. The Grinch has decided to go bad again and has a new Russian Mig, financed by Scrooge!

But before that we have Halloween, with real ghouls, torments and tortures yet to be revealed. And in between them is Thanksgiving. As a turkey hunter, I have been scouting and I think they know something we don't! Can't find one! They have made themselves very scarce! Although the domestic turkey supply should be (possibly) sufficient, since domestic turkeys, like the domestic population, have nowhere to run and nowhere to hide when nukes fly!!

Think about this... Biden is seeing ghosts and Putin is seeing Nazis and both of these guys have their fingers on the little red buttons!

Time for this Old Reb to ride.

"Scout says there is a dry riverbed just east of here, Cap!"

"Good! We'll take the herd there and put them between us and the Comanches circling to our south. The rest have ridden around the fire and the buffalo turned from the fire."

"They are going to hit us from two sides at once, Cap!"

"Well, Corporal, nothing we haven't done before on more than one battlefield!"

"Here they come, Cap!"

"See you when the smoke clears, Corporal! Boys, pick your shots! Make 'em count!!!"

"We're in for it!!!"

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!!!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Isn't it wonderful! The Nord Stream pipeline gets the hell blown out of it. Everyone points the "fickle finger of fate" at Russia, but... back at the ranch, a Polish diplomat said good going, America! "?" "?" Like... whaaa...??!

Now Putin is escalating by drafting everyone in Russia who can fight! He is getting impatient. Winter is coming and the Ukrainian blitzkrieg is turning into a possible World War III

P.S.P.S. Russia has only called up the draft and all armed forces three times. Once at the beginning of WW I, once when it became clear the Germans intended to invade Russia and now. It is vital to understand this fact.

On top of that, the U.S. Navy was in that exact area (very recently) doing exercises with underwater drone technology. What are the odds that the Nord Stream 1 and Nord Stream 2 pipelines would have THREE separate leaks at the same time? Fool me once, shame on you... fool me twice, shame on me... the third time, it's purposeful action.

Democrats are all over "Russia did it." Well, Russia doesn't benefit from the destruction, it puts extreme limits on their negotiating power. It doesn't benefit the Germans or the E.U., they are now looking at a very cold winter without reliable natural gas resources. On top of that, the E.U. has shut down their reliable energy plants in exchange for wind power and that is exacerbating the problem. Buckle up, patriots!
