

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGENOT

Morons and imbeciles, idiots and dweebs! Wall street under siege from America's dumbest and dumber. The problem being blown to the wrong wind. Mr. Obama, his union cronies and his young democrat commies stirring up the uneducated, unknowing masses.

What is more likely an answer: to continue us on our way down the garbage shoot!

My answer to it is this: let them do what they are doing and don't interrupt. If we let them do what they do and ignore them and the media, the crowds of dumb asses will soon get tired and go back to their tiny computer games and leave their boring signs laying in the streets. They will eventually go home in the inevitable disillusionment that democrats leave behind wherever they go.

"Why," you may ask. Well, it is simple. The Democrats have no solution that is for all of us. They only know how to cry baby and throw childish little fits until they get their tootie and fruitie ice cream. Let's see, these so called protesters think, so they say, that they are doing it for all Americans. Well, that is what is expected from uneducated gomer and goober types. The problem is with the uncaring regime in power that is spending all the money as fast as it can! Mr. Obama and Nancy P. are, let's see, our Lenin and our Trotsky?

More likely our Nero and our Khrushchev! These so called demonstrators have no idea that they are at anything other than a tailgating party! They remind me of their parents! Love, peace, not war... while screaming "baby killers" at our service men and women. Yes, we have all heard this pathetic chant before - all coming from Marxists and their fascist partners in crime after crime after crime! They can't win on their ethics or their philosophies, so they break every law they can, short of murder, to keep the real American people from our Constitution and Bill of rights, claiming more rights for themselves and less for us, the people that adhere to our great national agreement.

If you really listen to these idiots, they haven't got a clue as to what they are protesting. It is the rich people causing our problem (they say)! Gee, did anyone of you Democrats ever wonder where the rich get their money? Well, that's because you are too dumb! They get their money by working their asses off, so you can have a job. Maybe, if you are smart enough, even the lowliest person in our society has as many chances as he or she wants to make it. You say, "not really!" I say, "really!" I personally know a great many people from foreign countries that came here with nothing but their bags in tow. Through hard work, they are experiencing the American Dream! They don't gripe; they don't cry baby, "I want! I want! You owe it to me because I am" a lazy, drunken, drug riddled sack of crap! Or, "My mommy and daddy should give it to me because I'm your little baby!" Baby? Baby? Did I say baby? Yes, I did!

Americans, get off your big fat asses and work for it. Start your own businesses. That's what the rich did; they used their brains with what they had at hand or could create. For God's sake! J. Paul Getty only had a 5th grade education! It's not your education or how much money you have. It is this, though, are you willing to turn off that tube in front of you and your children and just try... and if you don't make it, try and try again and again! If you get knocked down, get up! If you fall behind, catch up! Why? Because poverty takes no prisoners; it only impoverishes. Mr. Obama-pie has obsolete no intention of helping you dummies. He, however, does want to keep you impoverished while he and the rest of his racketeers rob all, and I mean all of us, blind!

Do any of you out there even ask yourselves what $16 Trillion dollars would look like, all stacked in front of you in one dollar bills? Just think, if the benevolent Congressmen and Senators were to give us OUR money, what would your share of it be? You divide the money by 325 million (approximate population of the U.S.) and that should give you an idea! The problem is totally in the White House, or as "Jesse Jacksonnnnnnn" would have you believe, the "Black House!" Which is still incorrect. It should be the "House of Swiss Chocolate," after all, what Jesse forgot is the sack of crap in the Oval Office is half "white." His mommy dear (bless her poor little commie heart) was white! Gotta go, I think I made my point, at least to those who can spell!

See you on the bridge!

P.S. There is always more to say! How about that slime coward, Michael Moore? Now he is telling his ignorant group of morons that they have to kill Wall Street executives and incite communist revolution. He says it must be a war of blood. Well, Michael, being that you are a coward and a fat ass little girl, I don't think anyone will see you on the front line! And if it happens, just remember, those of us on the other side will hunt you down like the baby you are and take care of you!!! Death to Michael Moore and anyone who supports him!

P.S.-P.S. I, the Rebel, challenge Michael Moore to a duel! And guess what, Michael, dueling is legal in Paraguay! You tiny Imp! I can't wait to see you whimpering in a fetal position just before I send you to God!

"Give me liberty or give me death"
Patrick Henry

<http://rebelspeaks.weebly.com>

Check out our website for reader comments, past issues and to contact us!
"The Rebel Speaks" newsletter's purpose is to share thought provoking viewpoints and inspire discussion and debate about today's political issues.