

The Rebel Speaks

GOVERNMENT ANTAGONIST AND HUGUENOT

They say there are no atheists in fox holes. Well, that is true on the operating table as well, I suspect. This old Reb found himself in Hillcrest with the “widow-maker” in my heart recently. When they tell you there is a chance you could die during the procedure and there could be a short time left... you discover if you are religious or not! All I can say is that this Reb kept his faith and I was not afraid!

This is like my faith in you, my readers, to make sure Joe Bite-me and Kamala “Camel” Harris never sit their corrupt hini-ies in the White House. I’m glad to still be here for the elections. Trump has to come out on top... if not, then say goodbye to our republic!

I’m back and ready to fight, except I fell and broke my right hand. Wouldn’t you know it?! When it rains, it pours! “A?” I think the almighty is putting me to the test, to see if I will get back up. Well, I’m up! You should see me write! Onward and upward! Our country is at stake. A little stent for my heart and a broken hand is nothing compared to losing a country!!

The day of truth is at hand! After all, the almighty saw fit to give me an extra hand!

Time for this old Reb to ride!

“Helga is bad hurt but the doctor says she will live, Cap! Big Bob is beside himself and wants blood!”

“Mr. Harris!”

“Aye, Cap!”

“He shall have it! He did no less for me! Going to send for some pro’s to track those S.O.B.’s and bring ‘em back to pay. I’m tired of chasing outlaws. Let’s give someone else the privilege, Mr. Harris!”

“Aye, I agree, Cap!”

See you on the bridge!

P.S. Kamela “Camel” Harris is going to speak in Arizona...

doesn’t Arizona already have a herd of camels? They’ve been there since the army left them in the 1800’s.

P.S.P.S. Vote! Get out and vote like your life and future depends on it, because it does. This is not just a fight for which political party’s turn it is to be in power. This is a fight for our American republic and the freedoms it stands for.

If Biden wins, we will return to burning the oil and coal industries to the ground, leaving thousands and thousands jobless.

We will return to manufacturing companies taking their businesses back to foreign countries where taxes and costs are lower, just like they did under Obama. The Trump tax cut will be obliterated, raising everyone’s taxes. The price of gas will skyrocket back to the nearly $5 a gallon it was under Obama. Unemployment will skyrocket, just like under Obama.

Under Trump we have seen record breaking economic growth. Even under the “plandemic” the 2020 3rd quarter economic growth is better than 30% - the greatest quarterly growth in history.

Trump has sealed peace agreements in the Middle East that no other sitting president has EVER been able to accomplish.

If the left gains control, we will lose this country, forever. We will follow Hitler’s Germany. Destroy local law enforcement, propoganda will completely replace news, and in fact, it nearly already has.

But even if we win, get ready for a fight, because the left is very desperate to gain control. The destruction we’ve seen in New York, Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, Seattle, Portland and more are not impromptu events. They are orchestrated and paid for. And, quoting Kamala “Camel” Harris... “the riots will not stop, and they shouldn’t. This is a movement!” They want a fight? Get ready. Let them awaken the sleeping giant that is the soul of American freedom.
